

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, July 2. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated June 25.

From the Marshal de Villars's Camp near Spire,
June 15.

THE Army continues to consume the Forrage, and raise Contributions; and no Enemy has yet appear'd on this side of the Rhine; but a few Days ago a Party of the Garrison of Landau took one of our Commissaries of Provisions, and with him Twenty thousand Livres. The Lines of Weissenbourg are finishing, from the Mountains to the Camp of Lauterbourg; and the Communication of Drusenheim with Fort Louis is secur'd. Prince Lewis of Baden continues encamp'd at Linckenheim, whither he has caus'd a great Number of Boats to be convey'd in Waggons, as tho' he had a Design to lay a Bridge over the Rhine. The Marshal de Villars, who omits nothing that may frustrate the Designs of the Enemy, has order'd some Detachments to observe their Motions.

Falmouth, June 27. On Tuesday last came in here the Buffenburgh and Seven Provinces 2 Dutch Privateers from Cruising, and with them a Prize of 18 Guns from Nants bound for the West Indies, laden with Cloath, Almonds, &c. Just now came in the Alliance Pacquet-Boat, Captain Green, with a Mail from Lisbon.

Plymouth, June 28. To Day came in a Ship from Barbadoes, that came thence in Company with a Ship arriv'd at Bristol. [Whereof an Account was given in Saturday's Courant.] Two French Privateers have forc'd ashore the Greyhound from Antegoa, 3 Leagues to the Westward of this Place, and burnt her, altho' the Captain and his Crew with the help of the Country, defend'd her from 7 in the Morning till 6 in the Evening.

At Dartmouth is arriv'd another Ship from

Antegoa, but having been 7 Weeks in her Voyage brings no fresh News.

Shields, June 28. Thirty Sail of Colliers are just arriv'd here, without Convoy. About 40 Sail of laden Colliers, will be ready to sail in a Day or two.

Yarmouth, June 28. Yesterday pass'd thro' these Roads about 100 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of 2 Men of War; and this Morning pass'd through about 60 more, under Convoy of 2 other Men of War.

Portsmouth, June 29. To Day sail'd for the Downes Her Majesty's Ship the Valeur, and under her Convoy several Coasters. The great Ships, and Transports, continue still at Spithead; as doth also the Falcon Pink bound for Barcelona.

Harwich, June 29. Here are 100 Sail of Ships bound for Archangel and the East Country, waiting for a strong Convoy. All the Pacquet Boats are detain'd on the other side by contrary Winds. Yesterday a Fleet of laden Colliers pass'd by for the River.

Deal, June 30. The Transport Ships, Store Ships, and all the other outward bound Ships are still in the Downs, waiting for a fair Wind to sail to the Westward.

Lisbon, June 25. ' The 12th of this Month the Confederate Army march'd from Salamanca, and the 15th arriv'd at Pontiveros near Avila 3 Leagues beyond Penaranda. They propos'd to arrive at Villa Castin the 17th, and thence to proceed to Madrid which is but 14 Leagues farther. In their March the Country readily supplied them with Provisions. The Duke of Berwick was retir'd before them to Puerto de Guadarama, the only Pass that could be disputed in their Way to Madrid, but where they judg'd he would not dare to stand them, they being much Superior to him especially in Foot. The Portugeze Army in Alentejo, have since they took Xeres de los Cavalleros possess'd themselves of Alconchel.

Since the True Golden Snuff hath been so univer-sally approved of, both in City and Country, to be that most ex-celient Remedy for most Diseases affecting the Head, the extraor-dinary Vertues and Use whereof are fully describ'd in the prepos'd Directions, hath been basely counterfeited, and is no where else to be had then at Mason's Coffee-House in Bartholomew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, at Mr. Girard's, Toy-shop, at the Three Flow-er-de-Luces near Northumberland-house, and at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, at 1 s. per paper with Directions. Therefore beware of upstart Counterfeits. At the two first-mentioned Places is likewise to be had the Balsam of Cathay, for easing all Gouty and Rheumatick Pains, at 2 s. 6 d. per Box.

The Incomparable India Dentifick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcrafts a Toy-shop at the Sign of the Bluecoat-Boy over against the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-House near Charing-Cross, price 6 d. each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruise'd with a Hammer, becomes a soft and pleas-ant Brush to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by de-grees the outward Rind, wears so to the last. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteness of Ivory in a few times using; it preserves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uses it two or three times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a strong Breath, nor is this Root in its use any wife offensive to smell or taste.
